For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
HAHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.

The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.

The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.

The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.

The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the United States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex; to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

ALLUREMENTS TO WAR.

It was among the hopes most ardently cherished by the wise founders of this republic, that as we were far removed from the nations of Europe, we should keep equally distant from the ruinous paths of their policy. The object of every government should be, the happiness of the people. Yet the policy pursued for ages by the nations of the old world, has raised up a controlling influence, the interest of which is often opposed to that of the great body of the people. The European nations are essentially warlike—the natural element of their governments is war. The arts of peace are cultivated, chiefly with a view to the aids they can render in a national conflict.

Is there a hardy peasantry reared on the hills of Northumberland—in the green fields of Ireland—on the banks of the Seine or the Garonne?—Is Bohemia prolific of a race bold and nervous?—Are the Cossacks of the Don increasing?—The question of the European statesman is not, How many hamlets are there,

"Where health and plenty cheer the lab'ring swain?

Or what number of villagers dance to the flageolet beneath their native groves?—But, How many soldiers can they furnish to the army?

If the fisheries are to be encouraged, or new canals to be constructed—the chief argument in their favor is, that they will train seamen for the navy.

Is their a man of honor and of wealth, who is blest with numerous sons—no one asks, how will he dispose of them? But in what regiment will he purchase them commissions?

All their measures look to a state of hostility. Peace is but the repose of the warrior; from which he rises invigorated to new toils and dangers. In their respite from arms, the officers dance attendance at the levees of the fair—gallant them to routes, masquerades and balls—and court the favor of those who have power to promote them.

The common soldier riots in humbler pleasures—looks upon the daughters of the poor as his prey—sings the song of Patrick—

"I care not a marvedy how the world goes,
The king finds me money and vi'tles and clothes"—

gets fuddled at every ale-house; and at length begins, like his officer surfeited with pleasure, to yawn for more active service. A restless army is always dangerous: policy dictates a new war; causes are never wanting. The warlike nation, like the quarrelsome man, is never at a loss for plausible reasons for a blow.

In the meantime the farmer labors—the mechanic toils—and from their industry the whole of those that constitute the armies must be supported. The necessary consequence is, that the high become exalted, and the humble proportionably depressed. Privileged orders arise, and for every nobleman created in a nation, ten of its inhabitants are placed on the list of paupers. The army supports the government, and the governm't the army. Although the forms of the constitution may be free; although the Habeas Corpus may exist, and the trial by jury prevail; although elections by the people may still retain their forms; yet the state of things described does inevitably subject to oppression, and entail misery upon the great body of the people.

Descended from the Europeans, holding a constant intercouse with them, it would be strange indeed if we did not in some degree fall into their habits of thinking and acting. The influence of their fashions—their manners—their virtues and their vices, is every where to be seen throughout these states. So despotic is the rage for imitation and the power of fashion, that at this moment we cut our hair, form our clothes, and wear our hats, according to the laws and precedents of foreign circles. Professing to be free and to dress as we please, to our disgrace be it spoken, we are in this particular the very slaves of Europe. I would to God that this foreign influence was confined to the single and heedless object of dress. But their principles of government—their habitude for war—their political modes of thinking, which are the foundation of action, are borrowed with a most alarming faithfulness.—National honor, a most splendid but undefinable meteor—the balance of power—the vindication of justice in the protection of the weak—the support of commerce, &c. are already talked of with the utmost familiarity as proper causes of war.

Nor is it wonderful that war is spoken of thus lightly. We are the creatures of education and habit. Things in themselves most obnoxious, become by habit to be not only supportable but desirable. The field of battle, with all its danger, and all its horror, becomes, I have no doubt, to the old soldier a scene exhilirating and delightful. In the first dawnings of intellect, what are our amusements? The nurse tells us tales of Jack the giant-killer, and we are taught to admire his courage and prowess. A step onward, and Guy earl of Warwick and the seven champions of Christendom, are placed in our hands. As we advance, the histories of Greece and Rome—the exploits of Alexander and Cesar, are presented for our perusal. As we proceed, the fascinating poems of Homer pourtray the character of the soldier surrounded with dangers and glory, as the object of favor even to the Gods! We see the armies approach; and to fill the mind with the highest possible admiration for his favorite warrior, we are told,

"Troy charg'd the first, and Hector first of Troy."

Thus from the cradle to manhood are we constantly presented with martial men and deeds of arms as objects of respect and wonder. Nor does the enchanting allurement to war, cease here. Fulton was respected; Rittenhouse was esteemed. Those who have improved the agriculture and the arts of the country, "receive their passing paragraphs of praise," but it is the victor alone that awakens the loud plaudits which shake the vaulted roofs of the circus and the theatre. Jenner, the benefactor of mankind, has saved the lives of thousands; but would the people flock to see him as they would to behold Blucher or Wellington? "I would! I would!" Mistaken men! you know not your own hearts. Every one of you would tread on the body of Jenner, in a crowd, to get a sight of the heroes of Waterloo!

The soldier gorgeously arrayed in a suit of regimentals—his clothes trimmed with gold—his broad sash descending in crimson folds from his side, approaches the bower of beauty with a consciousness that he is always welcome; and our females lend the enchantment of their smiles to keep alive the military ardor which every thing around us is but too well calculated to awaken.

Hence it is, that the officers of the army and navy, are rapidly becoming a privileged order—not by statute, but by common law—not an order of nobility instituted by Congress, but by ourselves. Supported from the public purse—welcomed every where as a superior order of men, is it strange that the course which has led them to fame and consequence, should be eagerly sought?

Cast your eye to our navy. Look into the cabin of the Franklin and the Washington. The commander is a limited monarch within his domains, and lives in all the luxury and all the splendor of an eastern prince. Hence it is that our distinguished men place their sons as midshipmen in the navy—candidates for promotion—looking anxiously forward to the time when they shall command a line of battleship. But in peace, "few die and none resign." What then?—War will give activity to the navy—increase the number of ships—give to the officers an opportunity to signalize themselves—kill off some of the old ones, and open the way to promotion. How strong then are the inducements to occasional wars, among great numbers of extensive influence!

It becomes, therefore, a solemn duty, on the part of the Farmer and Mechanic, to weigh the matter well; and if war is to be avoided, to throw their influence early, openly, and decidedly, into the scale of peace.

TOAST.—The liberty of the press, and the press of liberty.

ALEXANDRIA:
THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Wednesday, April 15, 1818.

I think that Monday was the dullest day I have yet witnessed in Congress.—Nothing occurred upon which any but the individuals concerned would throw away a thought. Yesterday was rendered less unimportant by a long bill intended to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage; and which may possibly be interesting to your commercial readers—as, for the purpose of preventing impositions on the custom-houses of the union, it provides several regulations before not known to our importers. It enacts, in the first place, that the importer of foreign merchandise shall produce to the collector of the district into which such merchandise is brought, the original invoice of such goods, without which they shall not be admitted to an entry—but they shall be deposited in the public warehouse, at the expense and risk of the owner, until such invoice be produced. And if such invoice be not produced in six months from the time of importation, if they be imported from a place on this side of the Cape of Good Hope, or in nine months, if from a place beyond the Cape, they shall be appraised and the duties estimated. But the secretary of the treasury may direct the collector to admit the same to entry, on an appraisement being made, and bond with sufficient sureties being given to produce the invoice of such goods within 8 months, if brought from this side of the Cape, or 15 if from any place beyond it, and to pay any amount of duty to which the same should be subject, over and above the duties estimated on the appraisement. And the person making the entry of the goods shall either declare on oath that he is the owner, or on oath declare the name and residence of the owner.

The bill further enacts that the ad valorem duty shall be estimated by adding 20 per cent. to the actual cost, and oath shall be made that the invoice produced exhibits the real value of the goods in their actual state of manufacture at the place from which the same were imported and at the time they were imported from such place. In case of reshipping and transporting coastwise from one district to another, an invoice verified as aforesaid on oath, and certified by the collector, shall be produced at the port to which they are transported, and the same inspection be made as if they had been brought direct from a foreign port—and the goods shall be deposited in the public warehouse at the owner's expense, until the invoice so verified and certified shall be produced.

If the goods belong to a person residing out of the United States, the invoice shall be verified before the consul of the United States at the port where the goods are shipped.

Two persons shall be appointed at each of the ports of Boston, New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Charleston, and New-Orleans, to perform the duty of appraisers, who shall report the value of the goods at the place from whence they were brought, together with a respectable merchant, to be chosen by the party interested, and also sworn. And if the party interested neglect to choose a merchant, the collector shall make the choice for him, and the appraisement shall be valid in law. A merchant refusing to assist at such appraisement shall be fined, not more than fifty dollars.

When goods are suspected of being invoiced below the real cost, the collector shall have them appraised; and if on that appraisement the value shall be found to exceed the invoice prices by 20 per cent., 50 per cent. on the appraised value shall be added, on which aggregate amount the duties shall be estimated.—When it exceeds by less than 20 per cent. the invoice value, such appraised value shall be considered the true value.

The expenses of appraisement shall be borne by the owner, except when the appraisement shall not exceed the invoice value of the goods.

The appraisers shall receive 1000 dollars a year—that of New-York excepted, who shall receive 1500; and the assisting merchants shall receive 4 dollars a day.

BANK ROBBERY.

Letters received in this city state that the Mechanics' Bank of Pittsburg was robbed on the night of the 5th inst. literally of every thing valuable; about 80,000 dollars in specie were taken. It is unknown how the robbers entered, but as no doors were broken, and there was no appearance of violence, it is supposed false keys were used. [Ball. Fed. Gaz.

MISSOURI SALINES.

Very interesting account of them.

The Grand Saline is situated about 280 miles south west of Fort Osage, between the forks of a small branch of the Arkansas, one of which washes its southern extremity, and the other, the principal one, runs nearly parallel with, and within a mile of its opposite side. It is a hard level plain, of reddish colored land, of an irregular or mixed figure—its greatest length is from north west to south east, and its circumference full 30 miles. This plain is entirely covered in dry hot weather, from 2 to 6 inches deep, with a crust of clear white salt, of a quality rather superior, I think, to the imported blown salt. In this state the Saline bears a striking resemblance to a field of brilliant white snow, with a frozen crust on it after a rain.

The Grand Saline is environed with ridges of sand hills; some of which are perfectly naked; some thinly clothed with verdure and small trees; and others afford on their declivities thickets of dwarf plumb trees, not more than thirty inches high, which yielded us (June 23) a great abundance of ripe plums, the largest and finest I ever tasted. I think the salt may easily be waggoned from this place to the Arkansas, where keel boats may receive it at certain seasons. The road is through an open prarie all the way, and the distance not more than 80 or 90 miles.

The Rock Saline lies 75 miles north west of the Grand Saline, surrounded by naked mountains of red clay and gypsum. It is a level flat of hard red sand of about 500 acres, through which passes a small stream, dividing it into two unequal parts, one fifth, or about 100 acres, being on the south west side, close under a tremendous hill, from the base of which issue several springs of salt water, which gradually covers the plain, and by the action of the sun is, in dry or hot seasons, converted into a solid mass of salt, several inches in thickness. There are also within this plain four springs of salt water perfectly saturated, around which are formed hollow cones of rock salt, from 12 to 20 inches in thickness. When I visited this Saline it had just been inundated by excessive rains, and all the salt was swept off, except that around the four springs—I found an immense quantity there, and actually blocked out with my tomahawk a very clear piece, full 16 inches thick. From what I saw myself, and what my faithful Indian guides told me on the spot, and had often told me before, I have not the least doubt but there are times when this whole section, next the hills, is covered completely with a solid rock of salt from 4 to 12 inches thick, and immediately around the four springs 12 to 20 inches thick, resembling a field of ice in large flakes. The other section produces salt exactly like that of the Grand Saline. The country around the Rock Saline is very mountainous, and the Saline can be approached only on foot, or (with some difficulty) on horseback.

You have a specimen of the salt which I got at this Saline from one of the springs; therefore I need not describe it.

NEW SPANISH REGULATION.

The following document, in Spanish manuscript, was enclosed in a letter from Cadiz, of the 6th of March, to a merchant in this city. The article has no date, nor have we any knowledge whether it be already a law of Spain, now in force, or whether it is only a projected plan to be hereafter adopted.

Translated for the Mercantile Advertiser.

PORTS OF DEPOSIT.

1. There will be admitted upon deposit, free of duty, all commodities, produce, and foreign effects of lawful commerce, which may arrive at Spanish ports under any flag at peace with Spain.

2. Merchandise may remain in deposit for one year; within which time it may be exported to other kingdoms, still free of duty, or to Spanish America, by paying the colonial duties.

3. Goods not exported within one year will be considered as introduced for the consumption of the country, and will pay the regular duties; and if any part shall have been carried into the interior in the mean time, they shall also be subjected to the same duties.

4. Merchandise introduced for the interior commerce cannot be exported without a special license from the governor.

5. The government shall provide convenient store houses, for separate deposits, and shall hold the keys of the same.

6. Merchandise, on being entered for deposit, and being reshipped, shall be inspected and registered by the custom house.

7. For defraying the expenses of the store houses, and those employed in keeping them, all commodities shall pay, on being entered for deposit, two per cent. ad valorem, and no further expense shall accrue at their departure.

8. Merchandise in deposit may be sold and transferred without any further duties accruing, by giving notice of the conveyance to the custom house.

9. Foreign merchants shall pay, upon deposit, the same as citizens of Spain, and neither shall have the preference.

10. Merchandise may be taken out of deposit for the commerce of the Indies, to any dominions, in ships regularly registered, without paying the custom house duties of entrance; but it shall be subject to the debts of those who have established themselves in the commerce of the Indies.

11. The produce of Spanish America can also be deposited in our ports free of all duty, by coming directly from the colonies, and may [with certain exceptions] be exported to other countries at any time within one year from the period of being entered.

12. Gold, silver, grain and drugs of Spanish America, cannot be taken from deposit to foreign countries free of duty, but must pay the custom house duties of entrance and departure.

From the N. Y. Gazette, April 12—noon.

LATE FROM ENGLAND.

The pilot boat Science came up this morning from the brig Tom Hazard, in 35 days from Liverpool, and brought the editors of the Gazette London and Liverpool papers to the 3d of March, and Lloyd's Lists to the 28th. Extracts follow.

We find by our Lloyd's Lists that the weather, during the latter part of February, had been very stormy on the English coast—many vessels and lives had been lost. Such was the state of the winds at Liverpool, for ten days previous to the 3d of March, that no vessels sailed from that port.

It is officially announced, in letters from Liverpool, that on the 20th February the ports in England were opened for the admission of foreign grain, &c.

At Liverpool, March 2, the price of American flour was 57 to 58s; upland cotton 1s 6d to 1s 9 1-2d; New-Orleans do. 1s 9d to 1s 11 1-2d; pot ashes 60 to 62s; pearls 62 to 63s; American wheat 13s to 14s 6d the 70 lbs; flaxseed, for sowing, 120 to 126s; rice 42 to 43s.

Price of Stocks in London—4 per cents. 99 3-5 1-2; consols for acct. 79 3-4 7-8.

Lord Wellington had been shot at in the streets of Paris, by a man with mustachias, whom Lord W saw at the time. The police had made diligent search for him, but he had not been found.

On the 27th the indemnity bill was read in the house of lords. The report of the secret committee was presented to the commons. It states, that "The deluders of the unwary have seen and repented their errors." A petition had been presented from the mayor, &c. of Cork, praying the house to take into consideration the afflicted state of that city, and the country in general, in consequence of the fever, which raged to an alarming extent; and that they stood in much need of relief.

The king of Sweden is dead. Charles John (Bernadotte) the new king, was proclaimed the day after the demise of the old king. His majesty immediately issued a proclamation, lamenting in the strongest terms, the death of his predecessor, and reciting the circumstances of his own unanimous election in 1810, to the dignified station of crown prince.—On the 7th of Feb. the states of the realm were assembled, and the king having solemnly engaged to maintain the laws of the country, received the oaths of allegiance from the representatives of the people.

MARRIED,

On Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Norris, Mr. John Popham, of the house of Barnewall & Popham, to Miss Mary Ann, youngest daughter of Jonah Thompson Esq. all of this place.

DR. WILDINS' Celebrated Antibilious Pills.

THE subscribers inform the Public, that they have purchased of Doctor Wilkins his Receipt and the sole right to make and prepare his Pills, known by the name of Wilkins' Antibilious Pills. These Pills have been sold in this city and the neighboring country for the last twelve years, and during that time have acquired a character (for safe and effectual operation) over all medicines of that class ever offered to the public. Their composition is known to and approved of by several of the most eminent physicians of this place. The subscribers, with a view to extend their sale in the country, and to render them an object to country druggists and others, have reduced their wholesale price very considerably; and to accommodate individuals, will furnish them for the future in whole boxes at 50 cents, and half boxes at 25 cents each.—To prevent imposition from counterfeits, each direction will be signed by Dr. Henry Wilkins, the original, and D. & C. These celebrated bitters are composed purely of vegetables of the most innocent, yet specific virtues, and are infinitely superior to any thing yet discovered, for restoring weak and decayed constitutions, destroying worms, cleansing and strengthening the stomach, encreasing the appetite, and by the frequent use of them, they are a certain preventive against those complaints so common in the spring and fall seasons, such as intermittent fevers, and agues, long Autumnal fevers, dysenteries, &c. They are also of infinite service to those in the seafaring line, who make long voyages at sea, and are exposed to unhealthy climates; a preventive against contagious disorders—they are also a very pleasant bitter and are particularly recommended for the use of Taverns and Public houses, as well as private families.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS—With this view I have purchased the FARMER CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

Fan-Sash Making

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as it in town.

I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums,

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of b'ood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric'l affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
